

AVANCED

TRAINING COURSE:

©ANSA/EPA

INTERNATIONAL PRACTITIONERS IN THE SAFEGUARDING OF CULTURAL HERITAGE IN FRAGILE CONTEXTS

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI
FIRENZE

UNIVERSITA' DEGLI STUDI DI FIRENZE

Dipartimento di Storia, Archeologia, Geografia, Arte e Spettacolo (SAGAS)

The post-graduate course offers advanced training to form practitioners operating in the field in contexts of armed conflict or emergency, as well as in post-conflict or post-emergency scenarios, on the specific task of cultural heritage protection and safeguarding.

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

AGENZIA ITALIANA
PER LA COOPERAZIONE
ALLO SVILUPPO

Croce Rossa Italiana

AND, IN COLLABORATION WITH

60 HOURS OF - 10 CFU TRAINING

THE MAIN OBJECTIVES:

- Understand the main types of cultural heritage and the key challenges posed by current crisis factors.
- Identify specific threats to cultural heritage in different contexts.
- Compile essential documentation of endangered heritage, even in emergency situations.
- Apply fundamental measures to protect heritage, even in crisis scenarios.
- Gain knowledge of the international legal framework for cultural heritage protection.
- Become familiar with the structure and roles of major organizations involved in cultural heritage protection during crises.

To participate:

AVVISO e SCHEDA INFORMATIVA